

IN THE CLAIMS:

B1
Claim 1 (currently amended): A gear made of resin, comprising a substantially cylindrical rim having a plurality of teeth formed around an outer periphery thereof with each of said plurality of teeth having front and rear facing surfaces and a top, a boss formed about a rotational center of said rim, and a web connecting said boss and said rim to each other, wherein at least one groove is defined along outer surface of each tooth of said teeth to divide said teeth in a widthwise direction of said teeth, said at least one groove being provided in said front and rear facing surfaces and said top of each of said plurality of teeth and in a valley provided between each successive ones of said plurality of teeth.

Claim 2 (canceled).

Claim 3 (currently amended): The gear of claim [[2]] 1, wherein the groove is formed at substantially the center in the widthwise direction of the teeth.

Claim 4 (currently amended): The gear of claim 1, wherein ~~the groove is~~ a plurality of said grooves are provided at a plurality of locations along the outer surface of the teeth.

RECEIVED
CENTRAL FAX CENTER

SEP 12 2003

OFFICIAL